

Dr. Christina Rivers

Christina Rivers, PhD is an Associate Professor of Political Science. Dr. Rivers' teaching and research interests include African American politics and political thought, civil and voting rights law. Her current work is on mass incarceration, particularly felon disenfranchisement laws and prison-based gerrymanders.