

Kashta Eneas

Kashta Eneas has been licensed for 14 years practicing entertainment law. Kashta is a trusted advocate for many Southern California musicians. Prior to founding the Law Office of Kashta K. Eneas, where he focuses on entertainment law and employment law, Kashta worked for several Southern California law firms in the areas of entertainment law, family law, workers' compensation, employment law, estate planning and personal injury law. Kashta is a graduate of the University of Southern California Gould School of Law, where he specialized in music and entertainment law, and Morehouse College, where he majored in sociology. Kashta has extensive experience advising clients in the first state to establish a medical cannabis program, before and after the 2016 Adult Use of Marijuana Act.